

Crescents Slaughter For Wright 70 to 6

Poor Fort Wright with an alleged basketball team was badly out of place on the basketball floor at Parish hall on Tuesday evening when they met or rather scrapped at a bowling acquaintance with the fast Crescent five of Taftville. The score at the final whistle was 70 to 6 in favor of the Crescents. The soldiers were apparently in a daze and were unable to locate the hoop but three times during their forty minutes' sojourn on the floor. The hall, however, was not in their possession very long at a time which undoubtedly accounts for their inability to cage any great number of baskets.

The Taftville boys however were in their element and with clever pass work and accurate shooting piled up point after point. Belah had no heart for the visitors at all and caged 13 baskets for a total of 26 points.

The preliminary game between the Belah Aces and the Taftville Bears was a whirlwind compared to the feature affair. This game resulted in a 30 to 10 victory for the Bears. It apparently was the Taftville night at Parish hall. The scores:

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The circuit of the Grand Circuit adopted a schedule of racing dates today and granted Toledo's request for two weeks of racing.

The dates adopted were: North Randall, Cleveland, Ohio, July 5-10; Toledo, Ohio, July 12-17; Kalamazoo, Mich., July 19-24; Columbus, Ohio, July 26-31; Toledo, Ohio, August 2-7; North Randall, Cleveland, August 9-14; Philadelphia, August 16-21.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET WAS DULL.

New York, Jan. 13.—The stock market was dull and decidedly heavy during the greater part of today's professional dealing, but made rapid and general improvement on an extensive covering movement in the final hour.

Reactions of 2 to almost 10 points from minimum quotations of the forenoon were led by oils and steels in the face of a 15 per cent. rate for call money, although this rate was considerably shaded at the close.

Bear pressure was responsible for the more extreme reactions of the morning, when such volatile issues as General Motors and Chrysler Steel were singled out at reactions of 5 to 10 points.

While the market was in process of moderate liquidation, it was rumored that local banks might have to call loans in order to meet prospective government demands and repair last week's deficit in Clearing House reserves.

Apart from an absolute dearth of time money, however, monetary conditions showed no material alteration from their recent tendencies. Inter-bank loans have been forwarding funds to this city since the beginning of the new year, but most of their local reserves are being applied towards the purchase of mercantile paper.

Ballroom games retained all of their recent attractiveness, making no response either way to advances from Washington indicating that an agreement on railroad legislation by congress may be delayed by a month.

Of the more representative industrial stocks, the sustained strength of U. S. Steel was the most noteworthy feature and was again attributed to the recent excellent statement of unaffiliated tonnage. Sales amounted to $600,000 shares.

Bonds were heavy, especially speculative 10s and the Liberty group. Total sales, par value, were $13,250,000. Old U. S. Bonds were unchanged on call.

INVESTMENTS IN WELL ESTABLISHED INDUSTRIES

We offer bonds, notes and stocks of New England enterprises established generations ago. It would be almost impossible to select anywhere in America industrial securities with such records for stability and earnings. They yield 6 1/4% to 7 3/4%.

Send for Circular No. N-B-520, which should assist investors in making a wise selection.

and the matter of stakes, purses, and the plan of racing to be used in 1920.

The convention of the New England horsemen is scheduled for 3 o'clock and the banquet, which will be an old-fashioned beef steak dinner at $3.50 a plate, will begin at 7 o'clock.

Officially will try to induce some prominent man identified with the harness sport to address the horsemen in the evening, and plans already are being made to make this the best in the history of the annual occasion.

Fred Church Given H.

BY HARVARD COMMITTEE

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 13.—Fred Church of Lowell, back on the Harvard football team, was awarded an "H" by the athletic committee tonight, in spite of the fact that he did not play in the Yale game. His work

Ring Out The Old! Ring In The New!

When we began this series we had a definite object in view. We hoped to awaken into action the sleeping impulses to success which many a man possesses, to point out several paths along which those impulses might safely run, to teach him some of the simpler facts about bonds and stocks, and to call his attention to several specific investments into which he might put his money with safety. The series has reached its logical conclusion and ends with this summary.

The New Year is round about us. It came in, as always, with laughter and song. But every serious-minded man must have heard amid the music the measured tread of Father Time himself, stepping off the miles, and known it to be a time for mental inventory. Our own thoughts took some such form as this:

War and Peace. We have passed through five years of incalculable destruction of life and property and have been one year at peace. Industrially and politically the world is dazed and chaotic. It is a time to think straight and true and to make serious individual plans, for the kaleidoscope of events may show a far different picture any moment.

Liberty Bonds. Almost since the beginning the people have been selling, selling, selling their Liberty Bonds. We have been heart-sick at the wholesale wilful sacrifice of these best of all investments which should have been kept sacred for years to come, but in trying to discourage the process we found we were trying to sweep back the tide itself. If you still hold some of your Liberty Bonds we urge you to keep them as the best foundation you can lay for any investment plan whatever.

The High Cost of Living. Anything will do for an excuse and the cost of living has been worn threadbare. It is high, but not so high as the high courage and resolution of the man who makes up his mind that somehow, somehow, he will save and
